

Sake Brewery of Niigata

Niigata has long been renowned for possessing sacred land in the world of sake. Natural runoff from the highest peaks help cultivate Niigata's signature crisp yet defined palate. Known in Japanese as Tanrei Karakuchi.

We are thrilled to offer you our collection Niigata sake, carefully selected from over 90 discreet breweries!

朝日酒造

ASAHI Sake Brewery

Asahi, Nagaoka

Est. 1830
Asahi brewery is known for the popularization of Niigata's prized "Gohyakumangoku" rice varietal. Their Kubota line continues to be an essential representation of Niigata's signature, "Tanrei Karakuchi" (Light and Dry) profile.

菊水酒造

KIKUSUI Sake Brewery

Shimagata, Shibata

Est. 1881
An avant-garde brewery that often challenges tradition with technological innovation. Kikusui Shuzo produces a large variety of sake to accommodate any palate.

青木酒造

AOKI Sake Brewery

Minami Uonuma, Niigata

Est. 1717
Brewed in the snow country of Uonuma, Yuki Otoko is based off the legend of the "Snow Yeti" aka. "Yama Jin". Aoki Shuzo specializes in an alternative take on Niigata's "Tanrei Karakuchi", "Tanrei Amakuchi". A style of sake that retains Niigata sake's clean characteristic with an emphasis on the natural umami of sake rice.

武蔵野酒造

MUSASHINO Sake Brewery

Saijo, Joetsu

Est. 1916
Owned and operated by the Kobayashi family, Musashino Shuzo excels in handcrafted, small batch sake. Diverting from many Niigata style sakes, Toji Kenji Fuji is known to produce deeper and richer flavors.

八海酒造

HAKKAI Sake Brewery

Nagamori, Minamiuonuma

Est. 1922
Often referred to as "Snow Country", Minamiuonuma is well known for it's heavy snowfall during the winter. Snow being a perfect representation of Hakkai Shuzo's lighter yet elegant flavors.

麒麟山酒造

KIRINZAN Sake Brewery

Aga, Tsugawa

Est. 1843
Located beneath the majestic Mt.Kirin. Kirin Shuzo truly embodies the definition of locally produced sake. In the summer months, the "Toji"(brewmaster) and his team will assist the local farmers in the fields. This hands on approach ensures the best quality rice is utilized in their production.

緑川酒造

MIDORIKAWA Sake Brewery

Koide, Kitauonuma

Est. 1884
Located in the northern region of Uonuma by the banks of Uonumagawa (Uonuma River). Midorikawa Shuzo utilizes water siphoned from a well stretching 50m underground. True to Niigata's "Tanrei Karakuchi" style, they offer a variety of accessible sake that pairs exceptionally well with a range of foods.

尾畑酒造

OBATA Sake Brewery

Sado, Niigata

Est. 1892
Sado Island, where Obata Shuzo resides, is well known for its efforts in nature conservation. This deeply ingrained culture in Sado Island yields many benefits for its agricultural community, as farmers work harmoniously with the environment they vow to protect.
